

post documenta

contemporary arts as territorial agencies

A cooperation between the Athens School of Fine Arts (ASFA) and the Academy of Fine Arts Leipzig (HGB), in the frame of the German Academic Exchange Service DAAD programme: Partnerships with Greek Institutions of Higher Education 2020 - 2022.

Post documenta: Contemporary Arts as Territorial Agencies is an educational and artistic research programme of intercultural exchange among students and academic staff from the Academy of Fine Arts Leipzig and the Athens School of Fine Arts. Conceived as a platform for experimental modes of art education, research, production and dissemination, the programme aims to engage with the challenges of our current condition through collaborative praxis and critical discourse. Unfolding in the course of three years, the project will encompass a wide range of activities and formats, including workshops, talks, publications, podcasts, exhibitions and public events.

OPEN CALL

ASFA students are invited to apply for participation in the first iteration of the programme (2020). The open call is aimed at students across artistic disciplines and in any year of their studies, with a specific interest in:

- artistic research and critical discourse
- collaborative and transdisciplinary artistic practices
- experimentation with cross- and critical media formats, including video, sound, installation, performance, net art, VR and publishing

Please note that good knowledge of English (B2 level equivalent), as the working language of the programme, is a prerequisite to apply.

Availability to travel to Leipzig (depending on covid19 pandemic restrictions) is also required. Travel expenses will be covered by the programme.

To apply please submit the attached Application Form, together with your Curriculum Vitae, your Portfolio and a Letter of Intention stating your fields of special interest, reasons for applying and desired outcomes from participating in the programme (in English, max. 300 words). Applications will only be accepted in digital .pdf file format (max. 15 MB).

Applicants may send their proposals to arvanitis.n@asfa.gr until Sunday 10. May 2020.

For any questions regarding the program or the application process please contact Assist. Prof. Nikos Arvanitis: arvanitis.n@asfa.gr

DEADLINE: Sunday 10. May 2020
